The Avertonson brothers and I have been friends for as long as I can remember. They're also twins, but where Foster is all light, Kingsley is darkness and danger. I've been in love with Foster for a while, but the night I finally get the courage to tell him how I feel is the same night I nearly drown. I can't remember much about what happened, but I know I'm no longer the same girl as I was before. I tasted death that night and it left me feeling dead inside, hollow. And every time I look at someone, I can tell when they're lying. Almost everyone is a liar. That's what I'm realizing. Even Foster, who insists he's the one who swam into the water to save me. But he didn't. I need to find out what happened to me that night. But in a town plagued by lies, strange deaths, and mysterious disappearances, knowing the truth can be dangerous. Volumes 4-5 in the Bad Boy Rebels Series Benton: Life has been crazy. Not only do I have to worry about Zhara being in danger, but I'm getting extremely attached to her. So is the rest of my team. But that isn't the only problem I have to worry about. Alexis, Zhara's twin sister, might be in danger as well. I need to get ahold of West, Steel, and Ellis, our old team members until they broke off and formed their own team, and see if they can keep an eye on Alexis. West is also kind of friends with Alexis, so the plan should work out well. I just hope I can track everyone down in time.

Zhara: My life is turning into one big lie. Not only am I pretending to date all of the Bad Boy Rebels, but I'm also working undercover to help bring down one of the most dangerous drug lords in Honeyton. And I just found out Alexis's life might be in danger too.

Alexis: Today is turning out to be a wildly crazy day. I caught Masie, one of my closest friends, kissing Blaine, my best friend who I've been in love with for almost forever. The worst part is Masie knew about my crush. To top it off, someone steals my car and leaves me a threatening note. And if the day couldn't get any worse, I end up seeking help from West, Blaine's best friend, who always drives me crazy. Sure, the guy is hot, in a blonde, Gothic prince sort of way. But he's definitely not my type. Plus, I have the strangest feeling someone is following me.

West: I've been in love with Alexis for a while, but she's in love with my best friend. Except now she's mad at him, and I can't seem to stop touching and kissing her. The day is turning out to be great until all sh*t hits the fan and someone tries to attack Alexis. But I'll protect her no matter what.
